Hello Brother and Sisters,

I hope everyone is doing well and in good health.

The Fall District meetings went well; I want to thank Prineville #2555, Cornelius #4177, and Grants Pass #2146 for hosting their respective District's. The food was great and there was fun, and games had by all. Main message for workshops was to track and turn in your EVR reports to RayNora.

So October in a nutshell.....

I started my visitation, and the first one was in Baker City #3456, it was a great success, thank you for your hospitality. Next stop is Prineville #2555 on Oct 3, followed by The Dalles #2123 on 10/10, and Hood River #2150 on 10/11, I will be attending the Pacific Northwest meetings 10/17 thru 10/19 this year in Kenai AK. I will then be visiting Medford #2093 on 10/24 and then Grants Pass on 10/25, I will then be visiting Coquille #2196 on 10/31 and Coos Bay #538 on Nov 1.

Remember our obligation; If I can not speak well of and Eagle I will not speak ill of him

State Worthy President
Dan Winings

AUX. SISTERS;

I am the chairman for our newest charity - The Patriotic Fund. Donations to be included in this are total dollars you give to a veterans organization, a police activity, EMS fire fighters and other things like homeless shelters for vets, meals for vets, and honor flights. Do not send any amounts given to SMP Jenny's project, PAVE, as that is reported separately. Please plan to have a fund raiser to support this worthy charity. Marilyn Battese. Prineville #2555

ANY ROSTER BOOK CORRECTIONS—PLEASE LET US KNOW SO WE CAN GET THEM OUT ON EAGLES ALL. If you do not get the Eagles All notices or the B&Q and would like to contact Ray Piatt at the address/email below.

Eastern District
(Send In The Clowns)

Northwest District
(Sasquatch Sited)

Southwest District
(Caveman in the House)

STATE MADAM PRESIDENT - Jenny Wood

Hello again my Brothers and Sisters!

We have now finished fall districts, what a blast we had! Each district had a different theme...

Eastern was a circus even with a couple of clowns.

Northwest was Sasquatch, lots of pictures!

Southwest was cavemen - at Grants Pass (It has always been called Caveman Eagles).

Now we are headed to North Lincoln for Mid-Winter. Please call a school or a friend who has a child who paints, sings, plays an instrument, jumps rope or any talent - we have 3 scholarships to give out. Call Crystal Urban, (503) 910-7953 and get a form. We would like to have as many as possible!

We will also have formal dresses for sale - this money helps offset the cost of the membership awards.

I begin my visitations in October, I am looking forward to meeting your members this year.

Hello
Brothers,
Happy Fall!
The weather and leaves are changing, kiddos are back in school, and the Holidays

are fast approaching.

What a wonderful time of year! It is also that time of year to get your letters to me for the Eagle Service Award. As of this letter I have only received one. That's not enough, I realize only one Brother will receive this award this year, but I also know there are many out there that are deserving of it. Make my job hard please!!! I want to hear about all the amazing Brothers out there that do for our Aeries, our communities or both. Deadline is October 15th, and you can email it to raannegreen@gmail.com. The winner will be announced at Mid-Winter in N. Lincoln.

Y'all are doing a great job with trying to get our numbers back up, and I thank you . Keep up the great work. SWP Dan will be bringing your membership pins and roster books with him to his visitations. Remember if we all sign up at least one member we can be twice as big and twice as productive with our charities and helping in our communities.

Have a safe and spooky Halloween, watch out for our little goblins!

Fraternally,
RaAnne Green

Fall is here – I still need a letter nominating one of our sisters for the Eagle Service Award. This sister will be everywhere, from meetings, events, small get togethers, working in the community, being an Uber driver and doing Door Dash for those in need. Please, please submit a letter telling me about her from date of birth to present, what has happened in her life so we can honor her at Mid-Winter in Lincoln City with the Eagle Service Award. Deadline for this letter is October 16, 2025. Send them to diane.eberhardt55@gmail.com – or Diane Eberhardt, 20140 NE Sandy Blvd #2, Fairview, OR, 97024. I know that each auxiliary has at least 1 if not 2 sisters that are deserving of this award. Next up is our Pacific Northwest Regional Conference being held in Kenai, AK this year. I wish all of you could attend, it is so much fun to see our brothers and sisters from Alaska, BC, Washington and Oregon. It will be from October 17, 2025 – October 19, 2025 in Kenai Alaska. I hear there are many sightseeing opportunities being planned. Hope to see you all there.

Until next month – keep up the good work sisters – and make your plans to go to Mid-Winter Conference in Lincoln City, OR the first full weekend of November. Plan on taking 1 – 2 new members that have never been, show them how much fun we have.

See you on the Eagle Trail.

Diane Eberhardt

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

It is that time again to submit your contestant to Mid-winter Oregon Eagle Youth Talent Scholarship. I know some lodges can't afford to sponsor a contestant but any & all donations help. Also, you may have extra contestants who just need a sponsor, I will handle pairing up sponsors with contestants if needed. Please contact me with any & all questions. 503-910-7953. This scholarship program is the very spirit of what People helping people is. Let's make this Mid-winter the most exciting year yet.

Now the perimeters are 16-22 years old with performance talent. If you are unsure about what talent works, we have had all kinds not just singing, dancing or playing an instrument. We have had a comedian, magician, slack-rope walker & even a yo-yo expert

Thanks in advance,
Brandan & Crystal Urban
