Howdy brothers and sisters, this month went whoosh!

As most everyone knows I had a malfunction at SW district, ended up in the hospital for eight days. I'm much better now and will be on the road for Mid-Winter. I had to postpone the visits planned for October, sorry but it was necessary.

I'll cut this short since I don't have much to say that you need or want to hear. See ya down the trail.
SWP Mike

STATE MADAM PRESIDENT -Denise Kirkman

Hello everyone
Just wanted to let you know PNW was a wonderful time. There was so much to do and a lot of friends to do it with. The hospitality of the Wenatchee Aerie was great. They did a wonderful JOB.
Gearing up to attend Mid Winter and then the FEAST, both at Rainier.
Hope everyone has a wonderful Holiday season.
Will be on the trail for visitations soon.
My prayers go out to Steve Wiley and RayNora's daughter. My Eagle husband Mike Smith is doing better, my prayers are also for all of you.
Not much to say until next month. Remember to change your clocks on November 1st; don't want to be late for anything :) Be sure to watch out for the littlies.
Until we meet again
Love to all
Denise

Hello Brothers, HAPPY THANKS GIVING!!

Congratulations to the recipients of this year's Eagle Service Award. I'd love to tell you who that is but you'll just have to come to Mid-Winter to see or wait 'til next month's B&Q. Also, congratulations to the scholarship winners. How awesome was that entertainment! The kids are always so talented. There are a lot of people still waiting to be initiated or reenrolled, I know the holidays are coming but don't keep them waiting too long or they will just walk away. Anyone doing a volunteer appreciation night? Just thought this was a great time to do one. It is the month of "thankfulness". I hope everyone has an amazing Turkey Day, spends it with family and friends and feels all the love. Don't forget to bring the sweats to change into after all that great food. Enjoy your month, Fraternally, RaAnne

Hi Sisters,
I hope everyone had a fantastic Halloween!
I had a blast at the Pacific Northwest event.
We are currently up on our overall membership, but we are still down on our net gain. However, I truly believe we can continue to rise. Our membership is what keeps our Eagles strong. Every member brings something unique to our community—whether it is time, experience, ideas, friendship, or simply a willingness to help. Whether you have been an Eagle for many years or are a newer member, you are an important part of what makes our Aerie home so special.
Retaining our membership means more than simply asking people to renew their dues; it means giving our members a reason to want to come back. We need to remember that membership is not just about numbers—it is about relationships. If a member hasn't been around for a while, let's reach out. Give them a call, or invite them to dinner, an event, or a meeting to let them know they are missed. If you can think of a sister you haven't seen in a while, please reach out and let her know she is in your thoughts. Also, the Mid-Winter Conference is just around the corner. I would like to invite all of our attending sisters to join us for a tea party during our Auxiliary meeting. I hope to see you there! Don't forget that I will have the dresses out as well—if you need a dress for the banquet, this will be a great opportunity to find one.
See you on the Eagle Trail,

WOW!!!
